

Pause for Applause

Celebrate your recovered pandemic patients with heartwarming applause as they are wheeled through the hallways of the hospital to their car. Not only is it a celebration for the patient, it is a message of hope and uplifts the spirits of all employees!

Process

Consider an overhead announcement a few minutes prior to leaving the patient room to allow employees to go to pathway of patient.

“Pause for Applause” from (name of Nursing Unit).

Employees line the hallways clapping as the patient is escorted through the halls and through the doors of the hospital to family.
